February 5, 2009

Dear Career Fair Participants and Employers,

I am happy to announce that there has been an overwhelming response by employers committed to attending the 1st Annual Morehouse College Spring Career Fair, presented by the Office of Career Planning and Placement for Non Business Majors. Even during the challenging times our country is facing economically, the employer participation and sponsorship for this career fair has been outstanding. On behalf of the students and alumni representing Morehouse College and the Atlanta University Center, thank you so very much for investing your time and resources in this career fair. I would like to especially thank our career fair sponsors, Johnson and Johnson and Liberty Mutual for their generous monetary donations, and thank you Worcester Academy for the raffle donation.

Students and alumni, you have made a wise decision to participate in this career fair. Investing your time in attending this career fair will allow you the opportunity to network with employers from a variety of companies and organizations. It is more important now than ever before for college students to take a proactive role in assessing personal career goals, exploring career possibilities and securing future employment. Information that you gain today will assist you with developing your personal career path!

Students, seek guidance from your campus career services offices early in your college career. It is imperative that you take advantage of the many career development opportunities that are available to you on campus including: Assistance choosing your major, resume reviews, mock interviews, employer information sessions, on campus interviews, career fairs, internship opportunities, full time job placement and other services.

Employers, thank you in advance for considering our students and alumni for internship, fellowship and full time employment. I am eager to help you find outstanding talent to fill your available positions.

Students, thank you for attending this career fair and future career related events. Good luck and let me know how I can assist you with your employment/internship search.

I hope this will be the first of many future Morehouse College Spring Career Fairs.

Sincerely,

Kellye Blackburn Eccles

Mercy Home for Boys and Girls (www.mercyhome.org/mercyworks) Chicago, IL
Since 1887, Mercy Home for Boys and Girls has provided residential care for young men and women whose lives have been shattered by personal and family problems. Mercy Home transforms young lives of suffering into lives of hope and promise by providing a nurturing home, the means for growth, healing for families and God's mercy in action. Mercy Home offers youth who seek a new beginning safety, respect, opportunities for growth and the necessary motivation to pursue a healthy and successful future. MercyWorks, Mercy Home’s faith-based volunteer program, is composed of a select group of highly motivated individuals who are mission-driven and who wish to make a difference in the lives of our children. Volunteers possess a desire and capacity to work with the children of Mercy Home for one year. Volunteers are provided the opportunity to grow in their faith and spirituality through prayer and reflection while being committed to a process of building community and living in simplicity.

The Robert Toigo Foundation (www.toigofoundation.org)

The Robert Toigo Foundation was founded 18 years ago to encourage exceptional minority students to consider finance, not only as a rewarding career, but also as an opportunity to be the future leaders in the global economy. Our goal is ambitious: to create a self-sustaining structure that leverages finance as a vehicle to promote positive social change.

Each year we select the best and brightest minority business schools students to become Toigo Fellows. The Toigo Foundation offers the only MBA graduate-level fellowship for individuals committed to a career in finance. As our more than 700 Toigo Fellows and Alumni will attest, becoming part of the Toigo family is an experience that will transform your personal and professional relationships.
