Benjamin Todd Jealous
Civil and Human Rights Leader
Former NAACP President and Venture Capitalist

Benjamin Todd Jealous is the former president and CEO of the NAACP. Jealous recently joined the Silicon Valley venture capital firm Kapor Capital, where he plans to continue his goal of growing opportunities for minorities in the tech economy. Jealous was a Rhodes Scholar, and was named by both Forbes and TIME magazine to their "Top 40 under 40" lists, and was named the Young Global Leader by World Economic Forum. Jealous also serves on the Morehouse College Board of Trustees.
