

HOMECOM

The weekend may have started out cold and rainy, but the skies gave way to sun and fun during a festive Homecoming 2008 weekend. Miss Maroon and White, Joi Jackson and her attendants Isata Yansaneh and April Curry, were coronated in a colorful student production. Hip-hop superstar Young Jeezy and neo-soul stalwart Dwele each performed before hundreds and Atlantans lined the streets around campus for the annual Saturday morning Homecoming parade. Thousands of tail-gaters—and the scent of their barbecue and other goodies—filled the Spelman parking lot and areas throughout the Morehouse campus. And a huge crowd packed B.T. Harvey Stadium as the Fighting Maroon Tigers grabbed a thrilling, come-from-behind victory over the Albany State Golden Rams. Here is a pictorial look at the weekend that was Homecoming 2008.

WINTER 2008

