As a result of any AP, IB, or A-Level courses and exams, do you intend to petition for exemption from freshman or sophomore courses? If so, which?

Indicate the scores on AP, IB, or A-Level exams if you have received your results.

What is your intended major?

If you are undecided, in which academic area (e.g. Social Science, Humanities, Science) are you most interested?

Which high school courses did you enjoy most?

Did the courses you liked most help to shape your decision on your major and future career?

Which high school courses did you enjoy least? Why?

What are your academic expectations of Morehouse?

Why do you want to be in the Honors Program? Be sure to address the following points: (a) describe what you can contribute to the Honors Program and (b) explain how you think the program will benefit you as a student in the context of the classroom, campus, and community.

What experiences have you had which might set you apart from other scholars applying to the Honors Program?

Have you read a book recently, which you enjoyed, that was not assigned in a class? If so, summarize its content and mention its effects on you.

Compose a short (one-to-two paragraph) essay in which you state and explain your view on the most crucial societal problem facing human beings in the 21st century. Do you see any improvements or solutions?

What is your highest ideal or value? Comment in a few sentences, in terms of ethical or moral or societal values, such as self-knowledge, integrity, success, peace, wisdom, health, family, solidarity, professional achievement.

Do you think you should be expected to participate both academically and socially in the Morehouse Honors Program Club (HPC)? If you choose to participate actively, do you see yourself as a facilitator, leader, or an interested observer of student innovation and activities? Respond briefly but pointedly.
