MEMORIALS/MAIN CAMPUS AREAS

Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel (15a)

The Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel serves as the "living room" of historic Morehouse College. The Chapel seeks to develop and promote self-sense, duty, and the building of global "communities of hope." The Chapel is the world's most

Martin Luther King Jr. Statue (33)

Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel (31a)

Campus Police

Kilgore Residence Hall

Benjamin E. Mays National Memorial (7)

Dr. Benjamin Elijah Mays was the last to lead in the Morehouse campus in 1986. A memorial in honor of Mays on the Century Campus, site of Morehouse's Commencement exercises. Mays, considered the architect of Morehouse's reputation for academic excellence, served as president of Morehouse from 1940 to 1986.

The Howard Thurman National Obelisk (32)

The Howard Thurman National Obelisk honors a man known as an interfaith and interdenominational religious leader. Thurman, a 1923 graduate of Morehouse, served as a teacher and preacher at Morehouse and Spelman colleges.

BRL. Brazeal Hall/James C. Bilodeaux University Center

The Ray Charles Performing Arts Center

Shirley A. Massey Executive Conference Center

The Visitors Center

Krogian Campus (16a)

Krogian Campus serves as the "living room" and entrepreneurial institute of Morehouse College. The Visitors Center houses the offices of Recruitment and Admissions, Alumni Relations and Communications. Guided tours of the campus begin in the building.

Dedham House (62a)

Dedham House serves as the executive center of Morehouse College. Named for former President Robert C. Dedham Jr. '67, the house serves as a venue for meetings, conferences and fund-raising activities, as well as the residence of the president of the College. (Not open for tours.)

Glaster Hall (16b)

Glaster Hall honors former Morehouse President Dr. Hugh M. Glaster '54 (1947-1987), the building houses the main administrative offices of the College, including the offices of the president and his cabinet. The building is also home to the offices of Admissions, Financial Aid, Records and Registration and Human Resources. Glaster's memorial is inside the building.

Archer Hall (19)

Named after the fifth president of Morehouse College, Samuel Hood Archer Jr., the College recreation building, marking a gymnastics, swimming pool and game room. The gymnasium seats 1,000 people.

B.T. Harvey Stadium/Oletha Manley Track (46)

B.T. Harvey Stadium is named in honor of Morehouse president and administrator Franklin L. Forbes, the arena is a 4,500-seat facility that was built as part of the $15-million investment in the Atlanta University Center. Awarded by the Atlanta Falcons, the Atlanta College of the Arts, Forbes and the University of Georgia, the arena features 20 executive suites, luxury box seating and 400 general admission seats.

Stephen F. Crenshaw Tennis Courts (45)

The tennis courts, which are owned by Morehouse College, are a public facility. The courts are open to the public and are located on the campus of Morehouse College.

Krogian Campus (16a)

The Krogian Campus is the College's historic center. The beautiful green space annually serving as the setting for Commencement exercises.

BRL. Brazeal Hall/James C. Bilodeaux University Center

The Ray Charles Performing Arts Center

Shirley A. Massey Executive Conference Center

The Visitors Center

Krogian Campus (16a)

Krogian Campus serves as the "living room" and entrepreneurial institute of Morehouse College. The Visitors Center houses the offices of Recruitment and Admissions, Alumni Relations and Communications. Guided tours of the campus begin in the building.

Dedham House (62a)

Dedham House serves as the executive center of Morehouse College. Named for former President Robert C. Dedham Jr. '67, the house serves as a venue for meetings, conferences and fund-raising activities, as well as the residence of the president of the College. (Not open for tours.)

Glaster Hall (16b)

Glaster Hall honors former Morehouse President Dr. Hugh M. Glaster '54 (1947-1987), the building houses the main administrative offices of the College, including the offices of the president and his cabinet. The building is also home to the offices of Admissions, Financial Aid, Records and Registration and Human Resources. Glaster's memorial is inside the building.

Archer Hall (19)

Named after the fifth president of Morehouse College, Samuel Hood Archer Jr., the College recreation building, marking a gymnastics, swimming pool and game room. The gymnasium seats 1,000 people.

B.T. Harvey Stadium/Oletha Manley Track (46)

B.T. Harvey Stadium is named in honor of Morehouse president and administrator Franklin L. Forbes, the arena is a 4,500-seat facility that was built as part of the $15-million investment in the Atlanta University Center. Awarded by the Atlanta Falcons, the Atlanta College of the Arts, Forbes and the University of Georgia, the arena features 20 executive suites, luxury box seating and 400 general admission seats.

Stephen F. Crenshaw Tennis Courts (45)

The tennis courts, which are owned by Morehouse College, are a public facility. The courts are open to the public and are located on the campus of Morehouse College.

Shirley A. Massey Executive Conference Center

The Visitors Center

Krogian Campus (16a)

Krogian Campus serves as the "living room" and entrepreneurial institute of Morehouse College. The Visitors Center houses the offices of Recruitment and Admissions, Alumni Relations and Communications. Guided tours of the campus begin in the building.

Dedham House (62a)

Dedham House serves as the executive center of Morehouse College. Named for former President Robert C. Dedham Jr. '67, the house serves as a venue for meetings, conferences and fund-raising activities, as well as the residence of the president of the College. (Not open for tours.)

Glaster Hall (16b)

Glaster Hall honors former Morehouse President Dr. Hugh M. Glaster '54 (1947-1987), the building houses the main administrative offices of the College, including the offices of the president and his cabinet. The building is also home to the offices of Admissions, Financial Aid, Records and Registration and Human Resources. Glaster's memorial is inside the building.

Archer Hall (19)

Named after the fifth president of Morehouse College, Samuel Hood Archer Jr., the College recreation building, marking a gymnastics, swimming pool and game room. The gymnasium seats 1,000 people.

B.T. Harvey Stadium/Oletha Manley Track (46)

B.T. Harvey Stadium is named in honor of Morehouse president and administrator Franklin L. Forbes, the arena is a 4,500-seat facility that was built as part of the $15-million investment in the Atlanta University Center. Awarded by the Atlanta Falcons, the Atlanta College of the Arts, Forbes and the University of Georgia, the arena features 20 executive suites, luxury box seating and 400 general admission seats.

Stephen F. Crenshaw Tennis Courts (45)

The tennis courts, which are owned by Morehouse College, are a public facility. The courts are open to the public and are located on the campus of Morehouse College.

Shirley A. Massey Executive Conference Center

The Visitors Center

Krogian Campus (16a)

Krogian Campus serves as the "living room" and entrepreneurial institute of Morehouse College. The Visitors Center houses the offices of Recruitment and Admissions, Alumni Relations and Communications. Guided tours of the campus begin in the building.

Dedham House (62a)

Dedham House serves as the executive center of Morehouse College. Named for former President Robert C. Dedham Jr. '67, the house serves as a venue for meetings, conferences and fund-raising activities, as well as the residence of the president of the College. (Not open for tours.)

Glaster Hall (16b)

Glaster Hall honors former Morehouse President Dr. Hugh M. Glaster '54 (1947-1987), the building houses the main administrative offices of the College, including the offices of the president and his cabinet. The building is also home to the offices of Admissions, Financial Aid, Records and Registration and Human Resources. Glaster's memorial is inside the building.

Archer Hall (19)

Named after the fifth president of Morehouse College, Samuel Hood Archer Jr., the College recreation building, marking a gymnastics, swimming pool and game room. The gymnasium seats 1,000 people.
HERNDON HOME is the residence of the former slave and business owner Alonzo Hendon, founder of Atlanta Life Insurance ... tours are conducted hourly, Tuesday through Saturday. There is an admission fee. 587 University Place. (404) 581-9813.

PHILIPS ARENA/GEORGIA DOME/GEORGIA WORLD CONGRESS

TURNER FIELD is home to MLB's Atlanta Braves and features

UNDERGROUND ATLANTA is six acres of shopping, eateries

AND NIGHTLIFE. THE UNDERGROUND IS OPEN SEVEN DAYS A WEEK. THERE IS NO ADMISSION FEE, BUT THERE ARE FEES FOR GUIDED TOURS. 50 UPPER ATLANTA STREET. (404) 230-1786.

FROM PRODUCING THE FIRST RHODES SCHOLAR FROM A HISTORICALLY BLACK COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY TO ITS HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE IN THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT, MOREHOUSE COLLEGE IS WORTH A CLOSER LOOK…

ZOO ATLANTA is home to various species of animals from

ATLANTA HISTORY CENTER is located in the Buckhead

In 2013, the Morehouse College athletic program was named the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference’s most successful program. It was only the second time in Georgia’s history that a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. For only the second time in Georgia’s history, a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. Only 300 students at 24 colleges and universities are in the program, which has produced two Rhodes Scholars since 2004. In 2013, the Morehouse College athletic program was named the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference’s most successful program. It was only the second time in Georgia’s history that a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. For only the second time in Georgia’s history, a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. Only 300 students at 24 colleges and universities are in the program, which has produced two Rhodes Scholars since 2004.

The Aquarium that serves as Georgia’s lasting legacy from the Centennial Olympic Games. Free community events are held throughout the year. There is no admission fee. Centennial Olympic Park Drive. (404) 222-PARK (7275).

IN 2013, THE MOREHOUSE COLLEGE ATHLETIC PROGRAM WAS NAMED THE SOUTHERN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC Scholastic Scholars Program, which provides full scholarships to students from the Great Lakes Region in Africa. The students are to obtain leadership skills to take part into the sports world. Only 300 students at 24 colleges and universities are in the program, which has produced two Rhodes Scholars since 2004. In 2013, the Morehouse College athletic program was named the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference’s most successful program. It was only the second time in Georgia’s history that a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. For only the second time in Georgia’s history, a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. Only 300 students at 24 colleges and universities are in the program, which has produced two Rhodes Scholars since 2004.

In December 2013, The Woodruff Foundation donated Morehouse $5 million to renovate the Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel, which was built in 1978 and is the world’s most prominent religious edifice built in honor of King. The chapel is open daily and is used for a variety of events, including conferences, concerts, and worship services.

In 2013, the Morehouse College athletic program was named the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference’s most successful program. It was only the second time in Georgia’s history that a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. For only the second time in Georgia’s history, a U.S. president delivered a commencement address at Morehouse College. Only 300 students at 24 colleges and universities are in the program, which has produced two Rhodes Scholars since 2004.

Directions:

From the north/south

From I-20 West. Take Exit 55B, which is Lee Street/ Westview Drive, and proceed two blocks to the campus.

From the South

From I-20 West. Take Exit 55B, which is Lee Street/ Westview Drive, and proceed two blocks to the campus.

From the East

From I-20 East. Take Exit 55B, which is Lee Street/ Westview Drive, and proceed two blocks to the campus.

From the West

From I-20 East. Take Exit 55B, which is Lee Street/ Westview Drive, and proceed two blocks to the campus.

Visitor parking:

Parking for campus visitors is available in the parking deck located on Westview Drive on campus. Only visitors with campus-issued parking permits may park on the inner campus. Individuals with special needs should ask the officer at the main entrance for assistance or call the Parking Office at 404-414-7979 or Campus Police at 404-215-2006.

Parking rates:

1 – 20 minutes $0.00
21 minutes to 59 minutes $2.00
1 – 2 hours $2.00
2 hours – 24 hours $3.00
After hours & weekends $3.00
Lost ticket $3.00
(Passes repeat after 24 hours)

Morehouse College