

MOREHOUSE COLLEGE

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Eighth Annual

Harriett J. Walton Symposium

on Undergraduate Mathematics Research

Morehouse College

ATLANTA

Saturday, April 10, 2010

Undergraduate student presentations: fifteen-minute oral presentations by undergraduate students in pure or applied mathematics, statistics, mathematics education, and related areas such as computer science, physics, engineering, chemistry, economics, and biology. All presentations should have a strong and essential mathematical component. Students from all institutions are welcome and encouraged to participate.

For each presentation, an abstract not exceeding one page should be submitted by March 10, 2010. Include your name, department, school, classification (e.g. junior), and your advisor's name and email address. Please e-mail the abstract as an attached MS Word document or latex file. If this is not possible, type double-spaced on one side of letter size paper with one-inch margins on all sides and either mail or fax the abstract to the Symposium coordinators listed below. There are no fees to participate in the Symposium.
