

MOREHOUSE COLLEGE

2015 Student Essay Contest

Reading, Writing and Remembering King Annual Student Essay Contest

SPONSORED BY THE MOREHOUSE COLLEGE KING COLLECTION

In his 1967 book, Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community?, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. framed the quest for universal justice around elimination of what he termed the triple evils of racism, poverty and war. Read Dr. King's book and discuss the extent to which his ideas remain relevant today. What do you see as the most urgent social justice issue of our times? Explain why.

Morehouse College and local area high school students are invited to submit essays. Complete and more detailed guidelines will be available prior to the competition and on the Morehouse College Martin Luther King, Jr. Collection website. A reception honoring all essay contest winners will be held on the campus along with other recognitions, including monetary prizes for the first, second, and third place winners.

Deadline for Submission
March 3, 2015

For more information, please contact Dr. Vicki Crawford, Director, Office of the Morehouse College Martin Luther King, Jr. Collection at (404) 681-7554 or kingcollection@morehouse.edu

Contest

Essay

